

History and Terrorism Workshop

22 May 2024

MMU, UK

9.30am Arrival / Welcome. Tea/coffee available

9.50am-11am PANEL ONE (20 minutes per paper, followed by Q and A)

Beatrice de Graaf (Utrecht) 'Why do we need to historicize terrorism and how should we do it?'

James Crossland (LJMU), "'Generic terrorism?'" Transnational networks and terrorist knowledge in the late 19th century'.

Constance Bantman (Surrey) 'Some grey areas of anarchist terrorism: legislation, lawyers and counter-surveillance'.

11am-11.10am BREAK

11.10am-12.25pm PANEL TWO (20 minutes per paper, followed by Q and A)

Caoimhe Nic Dháibhéid (Sheffield) 'Thinking emotionally about the history of terrorism'.

Timothy Wilson (St Andrews) 'The gatecrashers: A long view of lone assassins and terrorists'.

Bernhard Blumenau (St Andrews) 'Terror before the state: the long history of state terror'.

12.25pm-1pm LUNCH. Tea/coffee available

1pm Laura Nolan (MMU), 'Information on the AHRC Curiosity Award'

1.30pm-3pm Roundtable discussion – on bids/collaborations/future directions

3pm END