

The Returning Soldier and The War, Conflict and Society Group
History Research Centre, Manchester Metropolitan University

Veteran Politics in Europe Workshop

17th June 2019

Council Chamber, Ormond Building
Manchester Metropolitan University

Welcome: Kathryn Hurlock and Mercedes Peñalba-Sotorrio

Session One

- 'Veterans as a Political Force in Ancient Greece', Owen Rees (Manchester Metropolitan University)
- 'The Politics of Napoleonic War Memoirs, 1814-1914', Matilda Greig (Sciences Po, Paris)

Session Two

- "Vote for the man who fought with you": returning soldiers and British politics in the immediate aftermath of the First World War', Marcus Morris (Manchester Metropolitan University)
- 'Italy 1919: Returning soldiers and Fascism', Ángel Alcalde Fernandez (University of Melbourne)

Session Three

- 'The Politics of Wounds', Ana Carden-Coyne (University of Manchester)
- 'Veterans of the IB after the Spanish Civil War', Enrico Acciai (University of Copenhagen)

Session Four

- 'Red Army Veterans of the Great Patriotic War: Loyalties, Mobilization and Political Education', Robert Dale (Newcastle University)
- 'The Veterans' Tale: Controlling Histories and Memories of the Second World War through British Military Memoir', Frances Houghton (University of Manchester)
- 'US Veterans of World War II and the Politics of Battlefield Pilgrimage, c. 1970-1999', Sam Edwards (Manchester Metropolitan University)

